Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Norma Schilling, who is retiring from the state of South Dakota after serving over 44 years; and,

Whereas, Norma's career in state government started in the Department of Vocational Rehabilitation as an accounting clerk, and she was later promoted to statistical assistant, then statistical clerk, and 13 years later, Norma worked for the Livestock Sanitary Board as a statistical clerk for five years, and during her last 26 years, Norma served the South Dakota Real Estate Commission as secretary and senior secretary; and,

Whereas, Norma has made the protection of the public and real estate licensees a top priority in her current position, and her vast knowledge has helped many people grow and learn about their profession; and,

Whereas, Norma's attention to detail has been invaluable and will be missed greatly by her colleagues, and her willingness to put in extra time and effort to meet deadlines has demonstrated a commitment to serving the licensees and citizens of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, On October 7, 2016, Norma will retire to spend more time with her family and to enjoy more time traveling, gardening, and canning; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 7, 2016, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-seventh Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Teresa Bray, Deputy Secretary

Shantel Krebs, Secretary of State
